Welcome.....Craig McAllaster

Review/Approval of Minutes.....Craig McAllaster

Curriculum Committee update.....Henrique Correa
The committee addressed one proposal from Jane Reimers to teach ACC 606 as a blended course. The Committee passed it unanimously. Three sessions would be taught on campus and the remainder online. It is believed that adding more blended learning will help with enrollment. The faculty approved this class and would like a recap at its completion.

Rename FIN 609.....Clay Singleton
This item will be on the January agenda

Visiting Professor from Iraq (Dr. Amel Al-Charaakh)..... Mary Conway Dato-on
Please see the attached PowerPoint presented by Mary on the (Empowering Women through Education and Opportunity program).
Any donations for her apartment can be dropped off in room 119. These donations can be household items or monetary.

Writing Coach Information Update .....Alice Argeros
The Student Services team has formalized the process for coaching from Cassie Neilson. After speaking to the student you can send a sample of the students writing to Alice or Carlene. They will then make the appointment with Cassie who then will work with the student and follow up with Student Services. The outcome will then be given to the professor. If a student has any issues they can contact Student Services on their own for review.

Spring Enrolment .....Craig McAllaster
Enrollments continue to be a challenge. The Admissions office will be open Christmas hours to process any last minute applicants. The changes we have made seem to be helping the spring numbers. EAMBA's that graduated in May and August is showing an employment rate over 90 % with 5% higher salaries. The Alumni giving is up 6.2 % over last year.

Other Business.....Craig McAllaster

- International behaviors have been added to the student handbooks to assist in making sure there is a complete understanding of what is expected during student trips.
- Our commencement speaker for the spring graduation will be Harvey Massey
- Kudos to the Career Management team. Their help to the students in job searches have resulted in employment of many of our students displaced during a tough economy.

Adjournment.....Craig McAllaster
