2017-2018 Year

Amended October 4, 2017 by SGA Legislation 1718.02

It is the policy of The Student Government Association not to discriminate against any position of membership on the basis of sex, disability, race, age, religion, color, national or ethnic origin, ancestry, marital status, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, genetic information, physical characteristics, or any other programs, admissions policies, financial aid, employment, or other school-administered programs. The policy is enforced by Rollins and, where applicable, federal laws such as Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Age Discrimination Act of 1975. The College is an equal opportunity educational institution. Single-sex organizations are permissible to the extent allowed under Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972, 20 U.S.C. § 1681.

Preamble

We, the undergraduate students matriculating into Rollins College, in fulfillment of the right to participate in the governance of the college, and in recognition of the responsibilities inherent in such a right, do hereby set forth this Constitution of the Rollins College Student Government Association. Every undergraduate student of Rollins College is a member of the Rollins College Student Government Association and is thus entitled to participate, according to the rules of procedure, in any and all of its functions, including but not limited to meetings and events. No individual rule or procedure may violate that right.

Article I. Name and Purpose

This government shall be known as “Rollins College Student Government Association,” hereafter referred to as the SGA. The purpose of the SGA shall be:

- To provide a sound democratic student government as a participant in the decision making process of college life;
- To represent student opinion to the Trustees, Administrators, Alumni, Faculty, and Staff;
- To promote the welfare of the student community by providing an avenue for student expression, social interaction, cultural awareness, and student services;
- To establish a forum for discussion on issues which concern the student body.

Article II. Government

The SGA shall be composed of an executive, legislative, and judicial entity: the Executive Board, the Student Senate, and the Judicial Board. Each of the bodies shall exist separately with independent powers. The responsibilities of each body, enumerated in the Constitution, shall serve as a check and balance on each other. All entities of the SGA are responsible to and for the student body as provided for in the Constitution. The date and time for all meetings for all bodies of SGA will be set by the individual body at its discretion.

Article III. Election and Procedures

Section 1. Campaign Policy

- A. Campaigning materials are defined as all material utilized to advertise a candidate for an SGA elected position. Posting items will follow the guidelines set forth by the Student Involvement posting policy. All other forms of campaigning are allowed as defined by the Judicial Board.
- B. Presidential and Vice-Presidential Campaign total spending is limited to $500 to be reimbursed for every campaign ticket by the SGA. The Judicial Board shall monitor spending. All receipts for campaign materials must be received and cleared by the Judicial Board prior to the day before the polls open. (For more information on the Judicial Board see, JUDICIAL BOARD).
- C. Campaign materials may in no way slander or discredit another candidate.
- D. The Judicial Board reserves the right to have a pro-active role in the event of a perceived wrongdoing per the committee’s discretion.
- E. Anonymous tips are grounds for investigation of the integrity of the campaign.
- F. The Judicial Board is the only official form of communication.
- G. Honest and correct election procedures must be established and enforced by the election committee.
- H. Official forms of communication between the election committee and the candidates are restricted to emails, phone calls, and set conference times.
- I. Formal complaints made against candidates or the Judicial/Election Committee must be made by the Monday following the closure of the polls.

J. All rules concerning campaigning materials will be defined yearly by the Judicial Board in consultation with Student Government Advisors, and the College Administration.

K. Election Timeline

I. Petition drive for President/Vice President race shall begin the third Monday after spring break and shall continue until the Friday of that week.

i. Shall have acquired 100 signatures to be verified by the Judiciary before the deadline.

II. Judicial Board shall review and approve petitions before the following Monday

III. The Monday after shall begin the campaign period which will last four whole weeks

IV. Voting shall begin starting the Monday of the 4th week of campaigning and end of 11:59 p.m. on the Friday of that week.

V. Shall have, at the end of "Election Season", turned in all receipts and financial documentation for the race and been approved with "good standing" with the Judiciary on this matter.

L. The President and Vice President shall run together on one ticket

M. Class Senators shall run for office at the beginning of the fall semester each year

N. In the event that Executive appointment consists of newly elected Senators, a special election may be held in the Fall Term concurrent with first year senator elections to fill the vacated seats. "At-large" senator candidates run for the seat appropriate to the organization they wish to represent. This election, unlike the others, will be voted upon by the senate and these senators will take office immediately after all the open "at-large" senate seats have been filled. The Chief Justice will oversee the application and voting process for this election.

Section 2. Voting Procedures

A. The Judicial Board will monitor personnel involved in online voting for Presidential and Vice-Presidential Elections.

E. Presidential and Vice-Presidential elections must take place before Spring Break to allow for a strong transition for the incoming leadership.

Section 3. Declaration of Winners

A. Presidential and Vice-Presidential Elections:

A candidate must obtain a plurality of votes cast in the election to be declared the winner. The candidate receiving the most number of votes at the end of one week's time will be declared the winner of the election.

B. Senate Elections:

Four candidate(s) from each class year who obtains the four highest number of votes will be declared the winner(s) in the Senate election, regardless of the number of votes separating the candidates. If a tie occurs between two candidates for the Senate position of a class year with the same number of votes, a one-day run-off will take place between the tied candidates receiving the fourth least.

Section 4. Violation of Election Guidelines

Any student may bring any issue, complaint, and/or charge of misappropriation to the Judicial Board for a hearing. Issues and complaints shall be noted by the board. The board will hear charges, allow the accused to respond to the charge, and render a decision on what action will be taken. The Judicial Board has the right and authority to prosecute violators of the election guidelines established by the board and the Constitution. Consequences will be established by the board at the time of the prosecution and can range from fines or removal of campaign materials to removal from election in its entirety.

Article IV. Ethics

Section 1: Responsibilities

SGA Officers won't restrict the rights of their constituents on the basis of study, religion, race, color, nationality, gender, sexual orientation, disability, political views, or personal opinions. Officers will abide by proper business practices which have honesty, fairness, consideration, and enlightened professionalism in spirit.

Section 2: Execution of Duties

Students elected to represent the SGA in the College Governance System will be responsible for carrying out the duties specified for the position in which they serve in an ethical manner. Failure to uphold these duties and responsibilities will be grounds for dismissal from their position.

Section 3: Breach of Ethical Conduct

Any undergraduate student may bring a formal complaint against any SGA member relating to any unethical conduct. The case will be heard by the Judicial Board, SEE JUDICIAL BOARD, Article VII. Section 3.E. Proceedings will include testimony by the accused, the accuser, and relevant witnesses. In order to convict, a majority must be reached. Options range from rejection of the case to formal reprimand of the position to dismissal of the member from his/her position. The decision of the Judicial Board can be appealed to the Dean of Student Affairs.

Section 4: Impeachment Procedures

Impeachment procedures must be followed for any complaint brought against the President or Vice President relating to any unethical conduct. In addition to the actions outlined in the DISMISSAL PROCEDURES, upon majority vote to impeach, the case must also be brought forth to the Senate for debate. A two-thirds majority is required for a decision. All decisions are final and no appeal procedures may take place.

Section 5: Ex Post Facto

SGA shall pass no legislation that is ex post facto.

Article V. Constitutional Amendment

Section 1. Amendment by Legislative Action

Any current senator in good standing may sponsor legislation as a Constitutional Amendment. The amendment need not be authored by the sponsoring senator. All standard rules of order apply when discussing, debating, and voting on the amendment, and rules may not be suspended for any reason while an amendment is on the floor. When the motion is taken to a vote, a 2/3 majority must vote in favor of the amendment in order to ratify it.

Section 2. Amendment by Petition

Any Arts & Sciences student in good standing may sponsor a Petition for Constitutional Amendment upon securing signatures from no less than ten percent of all Arts & Sciences students on the petition. Upon receipt of such a document by the Vice President of the Student Government Association, a ballot must be created and presented to all Arts & Sciences students for consideration. SGA must provide ample opportunity for no less than 50 percent of all Arts & Sciences students to review and vote on the proposed amendment. A 2/3 majority must vote in favor of the amendment in order to ratify it.

Section 3. Amendment by Petition

Any Holt student in good standing may sponsor a Petition for Constitutional Amendment upon securing signatures from no less than ten percent of all holt students on the petition. Upon receipt of such a document by the Vice President of the Student Government Association, a ballot must be created and presented to all undergraduate students for consideration. SGA must provide ample opportunity for no less than 50 percent of all undergraduate students to review and vote on the proposed amendment. A 2/3 majority must vote in favor of the amendment in order to ratify it.

Article VI. By-Laws
