The AACSB Change plan was sent outlining key areas from the programs. We are expecting a response within the week. The next step is SACS notification asking them to change the level of our institution to a level 5. This is a two part process, the first of which will go out next week with the follow up due by April 15th.

EDBA Update.....Greg Marshall

- Steve Gauthier will serve as the overall manager of the program
- Greg Marshall will be addressing any Faculty issues.
- Jule Gassenheimer will be working on the Marketing Plan
- There will be a planning meeting scheduled before the December Faculty meeting with a report due then.
- A program of study sheet was passed out and reviewed. (see attached)

This will not be a heavy research focused program. We hope that eh executives can use their own companies for research purposes. Flow as a student comes into the program will go as follows: Each student will have a program advisor which will be decided prior to their start date. Once a file is received the faculty committee will review the file and make sure that they are a good fit. An interview process will determine who would be best suited to work with each student. If you have any questions please contact Greg or Steve.

Report on trip to IndiaJim Johnson

Jim Johnson reported on his recent trip to India 11/14-11/24, following up an earlier visit to educational institutions there by Rollins faculty in May 2012. He visited business schools in New Delhi, Chennai and Bangalore. All four schools visited had good facilities and an MBA program and all expressed interest in developing a relationship with Crummer. The two best fits for Crummer appeared to be O.P. Jindal Global University, just outside New Delhi, and Welinkar Management Institute in Bangalore. However, the former is in a relatively isolated location about 30 miles from the city center. Both are possible locations for a global consulting project and/or Business in Emerging Markets (INTL 606) and both expressed interest in developing research links at the faculty level. The Vice-Chancellor of O.P. Jindal Global University plans to visit Rollins January 7-9, 2013. Contact Jim Johnson if you are interested in developing contacts in India.
