

Memories

(An original song)

They say, “There’s no day but today!” or “Focus on tomorrow.”
Don’t let the past catch up to you, that only brings up sorrow.
Reinvention’s the key to relevance,
and still...

I rewind and retrace
but can never replace
the memories I leave behind.
I forgive and forget
but can never reset
the memories I leave behind.

Seasons change; the world turns ‘round.
People and places get lost and found.
The clock on the wall chimes, “A new time has come,”
and still...

I rewind and retrace
but can never replace
the memories I leave behind.
I forgive and forget
but can never reset
the memories I leave behind.
The memories I leave behind.
