

Women

Everyday it's always the same.
'Rise and Shine,' please, I'll go insane.
Then I see my dear sweet sis, Laura.
Oh how I simply adore her.
I wonder when the man will win the game?

Beauty

Although she may walk silly
She's always loved her mother's chili.
Then one night there was no more crying
Because she was on the dance floor flying.
And then they said, "Now she's Free Willy!"
