Sianna Boschetti, 2018 co-editor-in-chief

Sianna Boschetti is 22, an English major, and a writer. When not focusing on Brushing, Sianna can generally be found writing her thesis or an article for The Independent. Now in her final semester at Rollins, she is looking forward to a summer internship with the National LGBT Chamber of Commerce and applying to graduate programs for Fall 2019. In her free time, Sianna enjoys drinking way too much coffee, relaxing with her girlfriend, and exploring Orlando's eateries.

Tyler Vaughan, 2018 co-editor-in-chief

Tyler Vaughan is 21, an American Studies Major, and a storyteller. Other than Brushing, he spends much of his work week hours with the school's improv troupe and watching over his hall as a Resident Assistant. After graduating in May 2018, Tyler hopes to work in educational media and help better the lives of the next generation. In his free time, he enjoys making short films with friends, talking politics, and worrying about having too much free time.

Anna Wenzel, 2018

head of design

Anna Wenzel, 21, is an Orlando native and History major with two minors in Studio Art and Spanish Language. She enjoys museums, comic books, and musicals. A long-time artist, this is Anna's first formal book design. When not drawing or researching, Anna engages in political activism as a campaign intern. She will attend graduate school at New York University or the University of Chicago in the Fall of 2018.
