Babies Eat Here Too!

The Olin Library has updated our Nursing Mother's Room offering more comfort and privacy. Nestled away on our 3rd floor near Room 319, our nursing mother's room features a new glider and ottoman, changing table, and other baby essentials!

Student Artwork Showcased in Olin

The Olin Library Summer Shuffle

Over the summer, the Olin Library said hello to new faces and new departments, but we also said goodbye to our director for the last 11 years. In July, Dr. Jonathan Miller became the Director of Libraries at Williams College in Massachusetts. We will miss his creative leadership, his mentorship, and the innovative partnerships he created while he was here. All of us at Olin wish him well as he begins a new chapter of adventures at Williams: hiking mountains, navigating the northern wilderness, and of course exploring the local food scene! Fiat Lux Jonathan!

Wenxian Zhang, Head of Archives & Special Collections, has been appointed as Interim Director of the Olin Library and will provide leadership and support during the search for our next library director.

Each year the Olin Library purchases a work from the senior art show to add to the library's permanent art collection. This year we chose Slight and Choice by Claire Block '17. We were struck by the way she evoked the multi-layered complexity of language, which connects so well to the ways our students and faculty think about the library. These two pieces can be found on the 3rd floor near Room 319.

Olin Says Farewell

In December 2016, the Olin Library said farewell to our E-Resources & Serials Librarian, Erin Gallagher, who accepted a new position as the Director of Collection Services at Reed College in Portland, Oregon. She can now be found hiking the Oregon forests and exploring magical waterfalls!

The New Faces of Olin

Patti McCall "Not Your Typical" Science Librarian

Patti earned her MA and MLS from the University at Albany. She is a self-avowed Law & Order addict (R.I.P. Jerry Orbach) as well as the Golden Girls. Favorite movies include Dunkirk and The Big Lebowski, and her favorite comedians are George Carlin and Louis CK. She spends her off time in New York, NY (Strand Book Store), as well as the shores of Lake Ontario, whenever possible. She is mom to two barky dogs and three slobby cats, and partner to Jimmy, who plays the autoharp.

Maridath Wilson E-Resources & Serials Librarian

Maridath Wilson joins us from the digital journals aggregator JSTOR, where she served in a variety of roles working with Electronic Resources & Collections librarians to analyze usage statistics and make collection development decisions. Like Patti Smith and Robert Mapplethorpe, Maridath holds a degree from Pratt Institute, and earned her Master of Library & Information Science degree in 2013. Like Emily Dickinson, she spent some time in Amherst, and holds a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology, with minors in Women's Studies and African-American Studies from the University of Massachusetts. She and her cat, Blake, live in Orlando and are excited to be joining the Rollins faculty.

Juan Gonzalez Digital Library Specialist

Juan recently graduated with a BS in computer science

In January 2017, we also said farewell to our Discovery & Systems Librarian, Nathan Hosburgh, who accepted an exciting opportunity to become a Technical Information Specialist at the National Institutes of Health Library in Bethesda, MD.

from UCF after a long career as a chef in Central Florida. He worked for a few Winter Park favorites, including The Ravenous Pig, and helped to open Cask & Larder. As the Digital Services Specialist, he will be more than happy to help you with your printing woes, graphic design work, or access to Olin Library's digital resources.

Our previous Digital Specialist, Paul Gindlesperger, recently joined our Collections & Systems Department as the Discovery and Systems Administrator, overseeing the back end systems of the library, including the Olin catalog, scheduling software, and proxy.

New Spaces in Olin

The Christian A. Johnson Institute for Effective Teaching is now located in the Olin Library. Director Deb Wellman's office can be found on the third floor, in room 353. Professional development opportunities are highlighted in her monthly newsletter, ROLLinspire.

Accessibility Services is now located on the first floor of the Olin Library. This collaboration with the library gives students better access to their services, creating a more user friendly learning environment. Assistant Director of Accessibility Services, Jen Herr, can be found in room 122.

Grace Moskola, Director of Accessibility Services, has accepted a new position as the Director of the Accessible Education Office at Harvard University and will be leaving Rollins on September 27th.

Tutoring and Writing Center Updates

Sarah Hughes, TWC Operations Coordinator, has taken a new position with the Department of Health Professions, and Yu Ken Zhao '17 MUS has taken her place until the new Assistant Director's position is filled. The new Assistant Director will manage the program, but also work with the content tutors, while the Director of the Tutoring and Writing Center will oversee the program and work specifically with writing consultants. The search to fill both of these positions is currently active. Suzanne Robertshaw, our current director, will maintain her role until these positions have been filled.
