AAC Minutes, Sept. 5, 2008

In Attendance: Wendy Brandon, Laurie Joyner, James Small, Scott Rubrath, Steve St. John, Yusheng Yao

Minutes from last meeting approved.

Next two meetings for AAC were set at Sept. 9 (Tuesday) at 5 and Sept. 16 (Friday) at 5. Location: Education Dept. Common Room 249, Cornell Social Sciences.

James Small agreed to be the head of the subcommittee for new course approval.

Discussion if AAC would recommend a proposal to be submitted by the Curriculum Renewal and Reform Committee for a general education pilot program (RP). This pilot program would be presented to the faculty meeting for discussion and approval on Sept. 23.

Decision was made to go to the colloquia for the curriculum this afternoon and the common hours at 12:30 on Sept. 16. The task for the attending members was to jot down ideas and concerns from participants. With reference to these concerns, AAC would discuss at its Sept 16 meeting on how to make its recommendation to the faculty. The recommendation was expected to be made first to the Executive Committee by Sept. 19 and then to the faculty on Sept. 23.
