Legislation 1516.38

Constitutional Amendment: Change of Election Policy

SPONSOR: Deanna Loew

DATE: March 9, 2016

Whereas: The current constitution states that the election process must take place three Mondays after Spring Break

Whereas: The schedule of Rollins College is always changing

Be it Hereby Resolved, The Student Government Association of Rollins College will:

1) Change the following in Article III, Section 1 of the Constitution:

I. The time and date of the petitions for elections shall be left up to the discretion of the Chief Justice.

i. Shall have acquired 100 signatures to be verified by the Judiciary before the deadline.

II. Judicial Board shall review and approve petitions before the following Monday

III. The Monday after shall begin the campaign period, which will last four whole weeks

IV. Voting shall begin starting the Monday of the 4th week of campaigning and end of 11:59 p.m. on the Friday of that week.

V. Shall have, at the end of "Election Season", turned in all receipts and financial documentation for the race and been approved with "good standing" with the Judiciary on this matter.
