NEW COURSE DESCRIPTION

ED 558 CLASSROOM MANAGEMENT

Pre-Req: Elementary Majors or Secondary Certification Sequence / Prof. Joyce McLeod / Evening Studies Center.

This course will familiarize the student with the various approaches to classroom management and help him/her to understand the beliefs associated with each approach on such issues as human development, motivation, and learning. The literature used will focus on the management of time, space, students, materials, and classroom routines. The main objective will be to enable the student to define his/her personal discipline style and then use that style to develop procedures, policies, and discipline plans to be used in the classroom.

Means for Evaluation: Evaluation will be based on the development of personal management plan based on the findings of the literature, plus related reading reports, field observations and examinations.

Class Limit: 10

Class Meetings: 4:00 - 6:30 M T W TH

First Session: 4:00, Monday, January 7, PAB 18
