Updates with Dean Crown

- Update on Covid:
 - reminder to be vigilant and make sure all students are being reminded of all the criteria around social distancing and the TARS promise
 - Vaccinations: not available at this point
 - Mode of Participation: We follow up with students that change their form of participation without notifying us in advance. Our policy allow students to change their mode of participation by contacting crummerregistrar@rollins.edu by noon on Thursday.
- Budget
 - we have been able to outperform the enrollment numbers incorporated into the budget
 - the restoration announced by President Cornwell applies to base salaries, not other forms of compensation
 - the budget for next year will mirror this year
- Enrollment: pacing ahead of last year; we are significantly ahead of other institutions
 - Tuition reimbursement for Crummer remains paused for now
- Political Environment – we are partnering with Rollins to address concerns of students (and faculty) for any issues that may surface during the transition
- AACSB
 - We are in our AACSB year
 - visit will take place in spring 2022; faculty members may be asked to be on a subcommittee.
- Registration: the PMBA60 & 61 are registering for summer electives next week
- Commencement Update: we are not sure whether the ceremony will in-person or virtual; this is a Rollins-wide decision
- Reminder from Koray: please upload your syllabi for spring 2021 to Curriculum and Related Documents in Canvas
