The Rollins College Winter Term 1995 COURSE CATALOG ADDENDUM

COURSE MODIFICATIONS

Course Name: Care and Prevention of Athletic Injuries
Course Number: PED 410W
Change: New course number: PED 477W
Prerequisites: Open to juniors and seniors only.

COURSE ADDITIONS

Course Name: Conversation in French
Course Number: FRN 140W
Prerequisite(s): None

This course is intended for students who have taken FRN 102 and/or higher level French courses. The purpose of the course is to develop the students' ability to speak French. Participants will read a wide variety of texts, excerpts from French magazines, and short stories, and will talk about them. In addition to the texts, the vocabulary learned in the 100-level course will be reviewed and greatly expanded by topics at each session, which will lead to various discussions. Once or twice a week students will listen to a variety of recordings -- including songs -- which will improve their listening comprehension. Every day participants will be asked to prepare written dialogues in groups, which they will then enact in class, and they will also have to give short, prepared talks on an individual basis.

Class Meetings: MWF 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon
First Session: 1/4/95
Instructor: T. Bell

Course Name: Counseling in Schools
Course Number: EDU 330W
Prerequisite(s): None

This course will examine the status of school counseling and guidance in the U.S. public school system. It will also explore the variety of services provided by counselors in elementary and secondary schools. The objective of the course is to familiarize students with the myths and realities of school counseling programs currently functioning in the U.S. elementary and secondary public school systems.
