AAC meeting: 9/20

In attendance: Thom Moore, Scott Rubarth, Shannon Mariotti, Dick James, Ben Balak, Kristin Trucco, Christina Grass, Allison Wallrapp, Tina Bucci

Minutes from 9/16 meeting: Amended and approved

Philosophy and Religion dept. corrections to the major: Tabled until next week

Internship appeals subcommittee: Scott Rubarth volunteers

Curriculum review task force proposal:

- Executive committee almost unanimously rejected AAC proposal
- need more senior faculty representation
- likely split on staff issue

-AAC should perhaps focus on what is going to pass with the faculty, not only be concerned with the executive committee

TM: Motion to appoint a steering committee of 8 faculty members plus a non-voting member of TJ center.

Seconded

Discussion

SR: proposes friendly amendment that the whole AAC committee designates the slate

Agreed: Friendly amendment approved

SC: designation of permanent student

BB: believes in need for direct student involvement; finds it problematic that there is expected to be faculty resistance to the idea of a student representative.

SC: a voting student rep. will not make it past EC or faculty. Asks SGA to invite a formal student liason to steering committee, ex-officio, non-voting liason.

Agreed: The SGA will be invited to appoint a student liason to the committee

Proposal: Approved 5 to 1
