Update: Budget, Fundraising, and Building.....Deborah Crown

- Utilizing mission-centric budget model. Built budget so there is less disruption internally when there's external market changes.
- Fundraising continues. Edith Bush Charitable Foundation is largest donor.
- Preview of internal drawings of new Crummer building.

EDBA Update.....Greg Marshall

- Bob Ford identified to teach Literature Review course to EDBA students.
- Discussion around distinction from literature reviews from other courses.
- Discussion on how "different" approaches to be clarified with literature reviews
- Greg to report back to EDBA committee and follow up with Bob Ford

Flex MBA Update.....Bill Seyfried

- Discussion around new FlexMBA program for working professionals.
- Discussion around differences of FlexMBA and PMBA which is primarily in the form of participation. FlexMBA is up to 45% virtual attendance and students choose which classes to participate in person/virtually.

Graduate Certificates.....Bill Seyfried

- Updates on discussions with Holt and Toni Holbrook in regard to campus-wide guidelines developed for graduate certificates.
- Initial discussions include 12-18 credits (some require pre-reqs); cannot double count electives for more than one certificate; establishing criteria for certificates.
- Discussions underway with Enrollment, Student Success, and post-certificate connections to prepare for January cohort.

Academic Updates.....Bill Seyfried

- Teams' reminder:
 - EAMBA's will switch teams after 1st semester

- EMBA/PMBA's will switch after 2nd semester
- Continue discussions for assessing individual performance on teams.

Other Business.....Deborah Crown

- Mary Conway Dato-on: November 1-15 Global Links Scholars and students will be here.
