Legislation 1718.15

Ad Hoc Committee on Campus Safety

SPONSORS: Hali Reedy, Jasmine Jackson, Aaron Villanueva, Isabella Braga

November 30, 2017

Whereas: there is a necessity for an ad hoc committee for the safety of students and faculty who attend or work at Rollins College.

Whereas: The Student Government Association of Rollins College seeks to work toward the betterment of the experience of every student on campus through ensuring their concerns will be heard.

Whereas: Rollins College supports and upholds the safety and security of every member of the student body.

Be it Hereby Resolved, The Student Government Association of Rollins College will:

- (1) Form a committee that will hold meetings with constituents in order to get further input about ideas regarding the safety and security of the students.
- (2) Consult with faculty and staff working in the Wellness Center as well as those working in dormitories, fraternities, and sororities, coaches, and professors as well as every other student organization at Rollins College.
- (3) Use the information gained through this committee in order to draft and sponsor future legislation on the issue of student safety on the campus of Rollins College.
