Rollins Foundations in the Liberal Arts Required Events Alternative

SPONSORS: Cory McNichol, Caroline Powell

DATE: October 24, 2018

Whereas: Rollins Foundations in the Liberal Arts general education system requires students to attend two to three mandatory events. These events include seeing a play at the Annie Russell theater, a guest speaker at Bush Auditorium, or going to view artwork at Cornell Fine Art Museum or at the Alford Inn.

Whereas: The Center for Career and Life Planning would suggest that a student schedules an appointment with the office, or attend a Career and Life Planning sponsored job fair in lieu of one mandatory event.

Be it Hereby Resolved, The Student Government Association of Rollins College will:

- (1) Send a statement of approval to Dr. Emily Russell, Associate Dean of Academics, in favor for attending one CLP event instead of the current rFLA event attendance requirement at the professor's discretion.
