COMING NEXT:

March 23, 24, 25, 30, 31, April 1 - THE COUNTRY WIFE

A wonderful contrast to TABLE MANNERS, William Wycherley's comedy of manners applies more tongue in cheek to the foibles of late 17th Century English society. Mr. Horner, a noted philanderer, spreads word through the community that he is impotent, in order to set up "babysitter" arrangements with amorous young misses and matrons. The resultant complications are titillating, outrageous, and highly amusing. Replete with powdered wigs. Box office opens March 13.

RESTROOMS COMPLETED!

You couldn't help but noticing the new addition to the Annie Russell Theatre. At a cost of $81,000.00, the new restrooms and box office were made possible by a major grant from the Edyth Bush Charitable Foundation and individual contributions from hundreds of our patrons and friends.

We are still continuing our renovation plans. Next up: the theatre-chapel garden!

6 RMS RIV VU - A special free performance of Bob Randall's hilarious comedy featuring the Annie Russell Theatre's own Dr. Robert O. Juergens and his wife, Anne. A limited run--February 16, 17, 18 at 8:30 p.m. in the Fred Stone Theatre. Tickets available at the door--first come, first served.

NEED A GIFT IDEA? How about theatre tickets? We have gift certificates available for the remainder of our season. They make great gifts, are suitable for all ages, and are always appreciated. Don't forget theatre tickets for anniversaries, birthdays, and any special occasion.

FRIENDS OF THE ANNIE RUSSELL THEATRE

How our "Friends" have grown! Four years ago several of our patrons formed a group to help the Annie Russell Theatre purchase needed equipment. Our "angels" have generously donated $100.00 to maintain quality theatre at the Annie Russell. Four years ago there were only three, last year 25, and this year 52! This past year we purchased six new ellipsoidal spotlights and a new second-hand followspot. If you are interested in joining this elite group, call us at 646-2501.
