

ABANDON THE VEHICULAR EYE

a. (pro)

pure as a fish is pure

its own Vitruvian equation alone in the silence of mouths whispering on every side

let the angle
cdb represent
my position
relative to the source of Light

a perfect dodecahedron
shadowed on water
the Chinese character for flight carved into each surface

let the angle
bca represent
the position
of my final, melancholy rest...

a. (con)

you know lake water smells like stale tobacco

when you hold it
to the light

in a pickle jar
this is an obvious symbol:

a raven's feather
floats inside our symbol

watch a raven fly
above the lake. Hear it open the split wood
of its beak

& cry out. out. out. against all artifice.
