II. Dr. Levis announced that the purpose of the meeting was to discuss the presidential candidates. He said that the Presidential Search Committee would be provided all information obtained from the ballots on the individual candidates, as well as the ranking, with the latter being weighted 3 points for first choice, 2 points for second choice, and 1 point for third choice.

III. There were numerous comments offered about the three candidates, as well as a number of questions. Drs. Edmondson, Miller, and Peters of the Search Committee responded to the questions and provided additional information. Dr. Edmondson expressed the hope that we would "finish the process within two weeks". Dr. Gallo said he wanted to warmly congratulate the faculty members on the Search Committee because he felt they had done a "super" job in bringing three fine candidates to the campus. A warm round of applause followed.

IV. The meeting adjourned at 5:15 PM. A taped record of the meeting is in the College Archives.
