THAT all student representatives to the College Senate will have the right to attend faculty meetings as non-voting members.

The motion was seconded and passed unanimously.

Dr. Bowers reported briefly on upcoming Senate legislation and on committee charges and legislation: faculty responsibility in College budget decisions, sabbatical program, faculty evaluation, the one-court system, etc.

Dean Norris introduced the new faculty.

President Critchfield spoke regretfully of the wage freeze but optimistically of the College's financial picture. He outlined the campus improvements currently in progress and pending, the NSF grant received by the science and math division, the 1971 freshmen SAT profile; he also announced that a $10,000 grant for research during the summer of 1972 has been made available.

Dr. Cochran reported that the response of the faculty to the statement of purpose - as distributed - has been overwhelmingly positive. He urged cooperation from all staff and requested that members of self-study committees report to scheduled meetings prepared. He also indicated that departmental studies will be initiated.

The faculty adjourned at 5:04 p.m.

Edward H. Cohen
