

IN THE PALM OF MY HEART

Karlye Martorelli

MIXED MEDIA

In the Palm of My Heart, inspired by my husband, Jason.

An abstract expression of the colors we represent, the evening sunsets we witness together fishing on our boat, the joy and laughter we share, and at times the sorrow. My heart is full because of Jason- because I hold him in the palm of my heart.

30' x 40' canvas, made with acrylics, spackle, oil paint stick
