

HOPE

Nana Takano

I am a Junior Studio Arts major and I have always had a love for photography. This photograph represents how even when something is destroyed there is still hope shining through.