February 2, 1928.

The Faculty met in President Holt's office on February 2nd, 1928, at 3.30 P.M.

It was decided to send invitations for Founder's Week to various Southern Colleges and to Cuba.

It was also decided that classes would meet on Monday, February 20th from 8:00 to 9:30 A.M. then march to Hall for Convocation. Instead of students being allowed to go home for this time, it was stressed that the parents come here.

It was suggested that the students be charged the sum of $2.00 for lecture tickets, which would have tendency to better the attendance at lectures.

It was moved, seconded and carried that Mrs. Harris meet with two members from each sorority, and the Faculty advisors of each, and report of same be made to the Faculty.

There then followed a discussion as to whether the first two years of Latin taken in college should count for a college credit. Referred to Bulletin Committee.

It was then moved by Prof. Georgia, and seconded by Prof. Carlson that an Educational Policy Committee of seven members be chosen. Their duty to be to study and recommend changes in courses, and report to the Faculty who would then act on the report.

It was moved by Dr. Bailey, seconded by Prof. Weinberg, that the curriculum Committee be included in the Educational Policy Committee. This vote was carried.
