November 3, 1927.

The Faculty convened at 3:45 P. M., President Holt in the chair. Dean Carrothers announced two holidays during the month, viz., November 11 and 24.

The matters of credit for assisting in a department, carrying in excess of eighteen hours last year and carrying excess hours this year, were referred to the Bulletin Committee.

The question of students leaving class in groups before the bugle sounds was brought up. It was decided that instructors do not have power to penalize students for absence.

Dean Carrothers asked for opinions of the faculty as to chapel exercises this year, and they were unanimous in pronouncing them much better than last year. All agreed that at least 70% of the student body attend chapel as a rule. It was urged that all instructors cease classroom activities five minutes before ten o'clock and show their interest by attending chapel with their students.

Doctor Campbell spoke of plans for the Tuesday evening lectures and urged the faculty to not only come but to urge their students to come.

On motion of Professor Jenks, the Faculty went on record declaring the operation of motor boats on Lake Virginia a nuisance.

The following committee was appointed to find some worthwhile thing to be done by the student body as a memorial: Mrs. Newby, Chairman; Doctor Sprague, Professor Wattles and Professor McWhite.

It was decided that each faculty member should take one day off each year and visit other classrooms on the campus.

The matter of co-operative insurance policies was referred to Dean Carrothers and Mr. Brown.

Mr. Weinberg asked for better co-operation on the part of the Faculty with the Radio Station. Doctor Sprague and President Holt following with similar appeals.

Professor Georgia moved that mid-term grades be discontinued. After some discussion, the matter was referred to the Bulletin Committee.

The remainder of the session was devoted to the discussion of Professor Whetzell's plan of study at Cornell.

Adjournment.
