Minutes of Faculty meeting--November 12, 1925.

Dean Sprague opened the meeting by introducing the subject of cheating in class--after much discussion Prof Harris suggested the blue books be used, and handed out by teacher.

Dean Sprague then asked that the Assembly hour be observed more carefully. permission for absence should be had from Dean, the same as from daily chapel excersises.

Campus Committee rules were then read and discussed at length. Prof. Callahan then moved that we defer action on said rules, for a few days, and that a copy of the rules be placed in the hands of each member of the Faculty for careful perusal, this motion was seconded by Prof. Feuerstein. Carried. Meeting to be Tuesday, Nov. 17, 3:30 P.M.

Prof. Harris moved, second by Prof. Callahen that freshmen who did not have their work made up by Nov.23would not be allowed to play on foot-ball team.

Adjourned 6:15 P.M.
