FACULTY MEETING--Nov. 17, 1925.

Dean Sprague opened the meeting by reading a number of letters from various Colleges dealing with the demerit system.

After a lengthy discussion by various members of the Faculty, it was moved by Prof. Weinberg and 2^d by Mrs. Harris that we adopt these rules which will give the instructors the right to use the demerit system after Thanksgiving vacation. Vote stood-6 for and 6 against.

Prof. Weinberg then moved that the present Committee be discharged and the Chair appoint a Committee from the Faculty. Second by Dean Gartland.--All voted in favor of this Committee. A Committee of five to be appointed.

It was decided that Thanksgiving vacation should begin Wed. 3:30 P.M., unless student made special arrangements with Dean. Dr. Taintor moved, and motion was seconded by Mrs. Callahan, that the schedule for Glee Club, and other expeditions off campus, should be brought before the Faculty Council before setting dates. Passed unanimously.

Meeting adjourned 5:45 P.M.
