Prof. Boggs

Prof. Hochstetler reported on failures of students. Prof. Hochstetler, Miss Bellows and Prof. Boggs were appointed a committee to canvass the whole situation, map out a course of procedure, put it in operation, and report at the next meeting.

The question of order in the Library was discussed. The Library Committee was directed to formulate rules to secure order.

Rules were made for College dances that the attendance should be limited to our own students, and that they should close at ten o'clock, with five minutes grace for them to get to the dormitory.

J. J. Boggs,
Secy.
