DECEMBER 18, 1917

The eleventh faculty meeting of the year was held Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock in the President's office, Carnegie Hall, with the President in the chair.

Dr. French opened the meeting with the following present:

- Dean Short
- Prof. Wilkins
- Prof. Herrick
- Prof. Reinhard
- Prof. Harris
- Prof. Rencher
- Miss Bellows
- Miss Gonzalez
- Miss Gladwin
- Miss O'Neal
- Mr. Hanna

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The question was raised whether or not a student would be allowed to make up work when leaving prior to the college vacations. After discussion it was moved by Prof. Rencher

#2-

That the Deans be authorized to grant excuses for such work at their discretion. This motion was carried.

Miss Short reported that Student Government had been adopted by the young women in Cloverleaf and that the election of officers had just taken place.

Prof. Herrick brought up the matter of Science credit. He stated that the Biology Course (Science V) would this year be a semester course of three recitations and two laboratory periods instead of two recitations and one laboratory period as heretofore. The question raised was whether this semester course would fulfill the requirements for five points. It was so decided.

After the minutes of this meeting had been read the Chair adjourned the meeting at 4.40 p.m.

Alfred J. Hanna.
Secretary.
