Students with Disabilities Discussion Gail Ridgeway/Disability Services

With the addition of a blind student with a guide dog to Crummer, Gail Ridgeway from Disability Services gave an overview of the guidelines and expectations of students with disabilities. Extended time testing and special seating were topics discussed. Gail can be reached at 646-2354 if you have any questions or concerns about accommodating any students with disabilities.

Faculty Web Site UpdateJane Reimers

The faculty website has been populated on Black Board. Items are posted by Program. Please see Jane with anything you would like posted on the site. Also please check for accuracy and let her know if you think this tool will be useful.

WebEx Demo Clay Singleton

Clay Singleton attended the Faculty meeting remotely from his office to demonstrate WebEx software. Some applications would be to bring in guest speakers from their locations with the only cost being a web cam. Also students could be brought into the classroom remotely. This program has the capability to bring in 75 people at once. Also there is a record feature that students could stream or download classes. If you have any questions, please see Clay Singleton.

Other Business:

- The Wall Street Journal will be available outside the front door for one month to students.
- Program Task force updates: Due by December or January if this plan is viable and should be taken to the next step to recruit for the following year.
- Discussion on Grade inflation: Take a look at the practice of using group grades. Possibly using something that would make each group member accountable. Also using Class engagement instead of participation to describe how the student participates in class time.

- There is an opening for a Peer Review member. We need a replacement for a normal 3 year term, and one to cover the 1 year term while Ed Moses is on sabbatical. Jane Reimers was nominated and accepted for the 3 year term. Mark Johnston was nominated and accepted for the 1 year appointment.
- An Accounting Candidate will be here on the 23rd of October for consideration. He will be considered for a 3 year visiting position.
- Crummer will be hosting the closing reception for the Academy of Financial Services on Oct 17th at 5:00. Please mark your calendars

Kudos:

- Marc Fetscherin held two presentations with his co-author Christoph Lattemann at the International Second Life Community Convention in Chicago.
- Marc Fetscherin and Allan Kupetz were both interviewed in the local papers this week.
- Marc Fetscherin and Ilan Alon both will be visiting Kennedy School at Harvard to teach this Fall and Spring.

Adjournment.....Craig McAllaster
